

Its Game On! A Four-Quarter Super Bowl Seafood Tasting!

There is no doubt I love football, and all that's wrapped around it. Good friends and good food! But when it comes to eating on Super Bowl day, all of that jumping around needs a belly full of fun, hearty seafood. This year make something different - like more out of left field- and turn your Super Bowl food fest into a Four-Quarter Seafood Tasting!

Follow some of these seafood recipe ideas- fit for Super Bowl 50!

In the first quarter flash-fried Oysters are the perfect opener. As the game gets going into the 2nd quarter, bring on the salmon sliders! Get ready for the half-time show and the 3rd quarter with dipping Fish Sticks. The celebration in the 4th quarter deserves my Shake, Rattle and Lobster Rolls!
