PBS Features Okotoks' Heartland Café in Food& Travel Documentary!

May 27, 2013 Gazette Grande

PBS Debuts Off the Beaten Palate's 'Discover Canada Series'

TV host and world-travelling journalist, Michael-Ann Rowe, returns to DPTV – PBS as she explores food & culture in three different Canadian provinces. New Brunswick, Ontario and Alberta!

In Alberta Host Michael-Ann gets into the western spirit by visiting a cattle ranch west of Calgary and a bison and elk ranch at Lacombe. She also visited one of Canada's most beautiful national parks – Banff. Michael-Ann's visit to Okotoks took her to Heartland Cafe where they cooked up some delicious looking Beef Bison Meatloaf Burgers.

In one evening viewers will be presented a special broadcast of back to back episodes beginning at 7:30pm EST on Thursday, June 6th Repeat again at 12:30am EST (check your local listings)
